2:09: and it hints to have metallic copper within its center showing that it was some type of energy piece, and very different from the other pyramids. It is also been said that the great pyramid is the largest and most accurately designed single building in the world even by today's standards.

2:40: To understand this over all in the month of November starting from the genealogical record from the Bible close to twelve billion people were there astonishing technology vanished from the face of the earth. That has been the opinion of some of the greatest archaeologists of this world for the past one hundred years. This lost human race beat us to the moon. They beat us to computers and they beat us to nuclear war. A cosmic disaster occurred which wiped out this human civilization. It generated 6,000 foot tidal waves, the disaster known to early civilizations worldwide as the flood.

3:43: The descendants of this human race branch out from Ararat, Armeia, to create civilizations of less advanced technology but still with some knowledge of their original civilization. The theory of evolution which believes in the gradual progress of man can not stand up to the governed by the laws of thermodynamics. The evidence of fully developed cities and an advanced technology of a much superior human race only in intellect whose society deteriorated over time is over all irrefutable.

9:15 The entire world right now is really a dead man's tomb. It's a treasure hunters paradise. As you pry open the coffins that suspends underneath slowly you're lifting the lid on a lost lost technology.

1:46: Essentially, remarkably is the persistence of that biblical name Noe. And this is particularly so when you consider the ultimate language differences between the people and the extreme local distortions which have developed. But yet this name seems to stretch, not just in the Middle East but you find it in Africa. You find it in Europe. You find it in China. You find it in Japan. You find it in South America. You find it in North America. In their ancient traditions, by the way, not in current tradition, but in ancient traditions. Where there was so much distance between the human race that it's absolutely inconceivable that they can all know that same name unless there was these single survivors and this forefather that they were all originally learning from, their forefathers who taught them the lessons of the past. Yet the name Noe, virtually unchanged in isolated places such as Hawaii where he was called “Ninyun,” the Sudan where he is called Nanhung, China “Noowaa,” the Amazon Nowaw, Bageria he’s none as Knowwn. He’s among the French Hoodinites and the medieval peasants.

3:46 crystallize electricity, a decimal system at the very start, a ready made writing already perfected, a well established naming system in which think of the pharaohs they had five names

4:15 Egypt came from a clearly established civilization before them. The only conclusions that can be drawn from the evidence is that each of the first civilizations appeared suddenly, the Ado-mites already fully developed that a connection existed between them. Their footprints lead back to the middle east mountain where Noah and his family left the ark. And Noah’s footprint’s lead back to the old world where he learned all this technology.

5:08 There are maps that are surprisingly accurate, and reveal knowledge of the parts of the earth that were not not, until, until the twentieth century. They also show profound changes have taken place in man’s lifetime since the flood, especially the poles as you shall see. It is a fact that captains who sailed the seas used maps that were drawn from the 11th and 17th century. It has been shown that these maps are older than those centuries. In fact, they were copied from maps that were thousands and thousands of years old. Some of the maps showed a Greenland and Antarctica free of ice with advanced cities on top of them. See, these captains knew that these cities no longer existed there, but they knew that that land mass existed there, and that’s what they were trying to come after. And they also knew that since there were cities there at the time, there could be something left behind.

6:32 Science supports the Bible, that’s just how it is. On the other hand, there’s the theory of evolution, and it’s not science. What sustains evolution? It’s called faith, science as religion. One has to believe that all matter is self created, that this matter in turn created in intelligence, and in spite of the fact that is have never been seen that this inorganic self creating matter created life in opposition to observed science. All of this in violation of the first and second law of physics, probably theory bio-genesis human development and common sense. The belief system necessitates extraordinary explanatory contortions strange suppositions and all of it done with slight of hand. For example, since catastrophe events in our history will lend to much credence to the truth of the ancient technology in the time of Noahs event. Those theories are avoided.

8:04 What do you do as a scientist when you encounter ancient artifacts produced by antique high technology?

00:09 To understand who Jesus Christ is, that is to understand that though he was born in flesh and blood, originally he was not flesh and blood. Jesus Christ is an incarnated being, in which before he came into flesh and blood, he was a powerful spiritual being. Jesus Christ’s existence started long before the creation of heaven and the angel’s and also the space, the earth and mankind. He was a created being but at the same time he was created to be God, himself. What God the father did is that he created a being exactly like himself, in every way, before he made anything else. Jesus lived with the father for an unknown number of years before anything else was made. In which the time frame on this is impossible to account. In which, we could be talking about billions of years before the creation of the angels.

5:52 Jesus Christ was born in Bethlehem during the reign of the Caesar party of the Roman empire .

6:49 On the day Jesus was born, his mother was not given any room at any inn in Bethlehem, even though she was suffering from labor pains. In which the owners of these inns heartlessly and with no compassion turned her away. Joseph then struggled to find a place for Mary to have this divine baby in which it was believed he approached one of the worst and lowest of characters within that time, in which he asked a shepherd for help in finding a place for Mary to give birth. Shepherds back then were noted criminals and bandits in which they had a bad reputation for thievery and violence in ancient times. But among the poor and down trodden there is a society that people do not see cause of their prejudices. In which to show you this case is clear. The well-to-do inn keepers were respected people in ancient times yet they heartlessly turned a young pregnant girl away to suffer agony within this laborious circumstance.

Length: 9:31

0:28 During the Lewis and Clark expedition into the North American frontier, these two men discovered far more than the history books tell you. Did you know that white settlers came to those lands many, many years, in fact centuries before Columbus and the people that followed him there. Did you know that even Romans, Egyptians and Vikings have been to those lands, and many of them settled within the native tribes and came to intermarry. Did you know that the Egyptians and Romans had outposts once there and they became ruins discovered by Lewis and Clark. In which, they found Roman and Egyptian pillars in different places in North America. Did you know that the ancient Chinese empire also had an outpost in North American and western lands. And ruins of ancient Chinese buildings were found by them.

1:20 Did you know that many Native American tribes at the time of Lewis and Clark were able to trace their origin to the middle eastern lands, as coming as a scattered people, from the days when the tower of Babel fell. And many of tribes are a Semite people, who, also, when they first came here had blacks and white people living among them as part of their tribes through marriage.

1:40 Did you know that the names of Native American tribes are the ancient names given by their patriarchs, when their ancestors lived in the middle eastern lands.

1:49 Did you know that when Lewis and Clark encountered the Native tribes not all of them lived in tee-pee communities? Did you know that many of them lived in splendid and grand cities, that had pyramids housing buildings, and government buildings; and their chiefs lived in palaces.

2:07 Did you know that these cities had a large population, that also used forms of advanced technology, like electricity and engineering. And they had a brilliant system of living within a clean environment. And they had perfect, no disease, bodily fitness.

2:23 Did you know that when Lewis and Clark encountered these tribes they were invited to their cities, and saw how they really lived. In that, the Native people even had visitors from ancient empires throughout their history. And people did come there from Roman times and taught many of the tribes about Christianity. That means early disciples of Christ came to those lands that Roman outposts, and taught Christianity to them, way, way before Columbus' evil journey over here.

2:51 When Lewis and Clark encountered them the tribal people and leaders were not all into Shamanism; but also, just as equally, many of them were Christian and knew about Jesus and his sacrifice before they even came there. A fact history and the US government covers up. The white settlers after Columbus never taught them anything that they did not already know.

3:08 Did you know how those nations got taken out by the Illuminati nations of the earth like Spain, England, France, Portugal and others? Did you know those populations among those cities came to be genocided by chemical warfare that spreaded diseases upon them that they were not immune to? And that, after they cowardly and mercilessly killed the population; they took all the wealth and resources of those cities and those governments, and then burned their cities to ashes, and try and cover up they ever existed. And the natives that survived were forced to relocate into a hunters type life, as well; finding themselves fighting for the little that they have left.

3:53 Did you know that Lewis and Clark made friendly relations with the people of those cities, before they were destroyed by European and American military; who used canons to fire chemical balls of poisonous gas at them?

4:06 Did you know that those cities were thousands of years old before they were destroyed and had literature going back to Noah's day?

4:14 Did you know that when Lewis and Clark walked about those cities they encountered people who were Natives with white skin and blue eyes?

4:22 Also, did you know that the Rephim, the flesh giants, had cities upon North American lands with strange monuments that were towering into the air?

4:31 Did you know that the fallen angels came there and had them breed there using human woman and that is why shamanism became a major problem for many tribes who ended up serving the fallen angels, mistaking them as gods and goddesses, like the Aztec, Mayans and Inca did, who fell into the same trappings?

4:51 Did you know that the cities of the flesh giants had very advanced technology upon it, including space ships that went to other planets?

4:59 Did you know that it was the bravery of Native American tribes that took out the Rephim kingdoms, and managed to scatter the giants into isolated areas.

5:09 Did you know that when Lewis and Clark came there they also visited the ruins of Nephim cities and saw the remains of their strange monuments. Also, it gets even more amazing. As you know the Egyptian's had secret technology and they space traveled under the noses of their population. Often they would seek out far away lands to build their secret spaceships and a place they would come to build, and then launch and then return ; guess where one of those places were? Upon North American lands, upon the western hot dessert oasis areas. The Egyptian's there, thousands of years ago, built a secret space launch building; and there ship was built there. And there is where they launched, and when they returned they landed near a secret place around Egypt

5:56 The Egyptian outpost there was for their secret technology. And also, they built relations with the Natives there, who, even after all this time, they had records of the Egyptian visitors and people describing them as space men, drawing them in space suits, and coming out of ships and writing about their landings as they would test their ships out and they would fly them to space and back, sometimes returning to point of origin.

6:23 Lewis and Clark were told stories about them from the Native people, who did not call them aliens, but Egyptians. In fact, they even knew that the Rephim were demonic in their nature and not alien.

6:35 Lewis and Clark saw and learned the true face in history of the North American continent, before the cities were taken out and the ruins removed and locked up in the Smithsonian Institute while some still remains.

6:49 The two explorers were grieved by the actions of their government and taking part in the genocide of near one hundred million people and their culture over time.

6:57 The two explores were then to be credited for being the first white people to go to distant American lands, but they even knew that was far from the truth and that it was propaganda, and that is was not true. And that they were to tell a watered down version of what they saw, and go along with the version of the story they wanted in their history books.

7:17 At first, both Clark and Lewis refused to do that and their journals became confiscated and locked away also in the Smithsonian. And then the American government at the time threatened to kill them if they did not go along with it and to destroy their careers.

7:32 So, at first, they both went along with it, them being also devout masons as well, for a time, until Mayweather Lewis could not be silent about it. Soon he began to write a book detailing the true account of what he saw and learned during the expedition. And for a time he kept this a secret, but spies that were near him and watching him noticed he was writing long hours into the night. And so, one day, when he stepped out of his home, they went to go and see what he was writing about. And when they read some of it, they quickly went to report and rat him out. From there Mayweather Lewis was assassinated a victim of the cover-up and a true patriot.

8:09 His murder was covered up to look like something else. But Clark and those close to Lewis knew the real reason why. That he knew things that the government wanted covered up, which was the truth and the horrible crimes they committed.

8:22 American history is a propaganda lie, and a most sinister lie at that. It blinds you from the true reality of what is really taking place in history.

8:31 The Smithsonian Institute didn't just house Adam and Eve's bodies at one time, but before them and even going after the sixties they have covered up and locked away ruins from Native cities, Roman towns, Viking towns, Rephim cities, Egyptian towns, Chinese towns and have found many articles of various ancient technological objects, some being very advanced and stored them away. And they have much of the literature, riches and resources of those Native cities locked their, as well. Along with a lot of discoveries found upon North American lands that they don't want people to know about. Like the fact that they found T-Rex bones that were thousands of years old and not millions of years old. And the evidence shows that these T-Rex bones were laid out among human bones as well.

Nimrod part1.mp4

Length: 14:32

6:44 In fact, Gog and Magog were in fact giants

8:35 One of those woman he [Cush] would have an attachment to was a woman named Simeranis

9:08 Cush was the man who built up Sumernia. Sumernia at the time became the most powerful kingdom on Earth. And it was the kingdom that housed the most advanced technology and strongest warriors on Earth. His revival was Mizraim and another rival of his was Canaan. They too were building up very powerful kingdoms.

11:04 There was a son of Mizraim, who married a woman of Japeth's line. And these two settled the island of Crete. And they were also people who got involved with satanic worship and fallen angels. And many of them started to have children. Keep in mind this pair were actually the father of the Philistines. And among the Philistines there were giants being born among them. Who were known for being quite powerful, and quite overwhelming influential. And they created a certain religion that became a very popular religion in that time. That over time became the standard religion worship among the Greeks and the Romans. And among many, many other cultures as well.

12:38 This son [Nimrod], was chosen to be genetically enhanced. He was chosen to have the serum of the fallen angels injected into him. And to have his DNA re-written.

14:00 When he [Nimrod] was born, he was born with a certain evil type deformity. That left Cush a very uneasy unsettling feeling in his heart. When he saw the son, and knew the background of how the son had come to Earth. So he gave him a name, that would reflect his feelings at the time and the actions of his wife. He called him a fool, but a fool who would rebel. Hence the word, or the name, Nimrod.

Length: 13:32

0:24 He [Nimrod] was known to have fangs. He grew anywhere between thirty and forty feet tall.

0:40 He [Nimrod] was faster than other giants, he was stronger than other giants. And he was more tactically skilled than other giants.

1:27 Over time Semiramis would leave Cush and marry Nimrod.

1:46 Nimrod first challenged the giants. And he would win fame by killing other giants. He would be known as a giant slayer. He would kill the mightiest hero's on Earth. Hero's that, you know, you basically know in mythology today. Ah, you called them Zeus, you called them Mars, you called them Apollo. You called them by many names. They had different names back then, but they were names that would they be known as later. Nimrod killed them all.

2:37 Nimrod also institutionalized slavery. Every city or village he conquered he would enslave the population.

3:35 Nimrod would be twice as worse as Cain.

3:45 Over time Nimrod started a war with the other brethren of the Hamiite caste. He would conquer Canaan and Canaan would submit to him. And together collectively they would betray their patriarch Ham and then they would have him beheaded. He then went to was with Mizraim. He killed the giants of Mizraim. And eventually killed Mizraim himself and conquered over his army.

5:55 I'm sure a lot of you have heard of the great wall of China. A lot of you are taught falsely in history that the wall was built to protect them from the Mongolian invasion. That's not true by the way. If you very, very look at the whole and the time frame it was built, and the size and the girth of the wall. It very much shows it was a wall to protect them from an army of giants. And this is how many of them were kept isolated from this incident. But it actually still didn't help. Because by conquering most of the world, they were then able to conquer the resources. And then it even brought those people to their knees.

6:33 The world at the time spoke one language.

8:12 The tower was measured to be ten miles high. I kid you not.

8:57 Nimrod envisioned this tower to basically stand in an area outside of Sumernia. He would build many, many cities in Sumernia, and he would build a central city that became known as Babylon. And outside of Babylon was an area called Babel. And this was an area of huge Satanic worship. It was called Babel because for miles you could hear all this babel chanting going on. And so it got this surname. And his idea was to build the tower there. And this is what he would end up doing. When the tower was near completion there came a day where Nimrod was suppose to Christen it. So, he then comes from his capital. And then there riding out to the tower of Babel to do so. But something happens. And that's God. God calls forth the Angels to hear his testimony about what he has to say about this idolatrous tower. He hated it. And then at that moment, with pretty much a sneeze. This tower comes crumbling down. It was basically just a burst of wind. And it shattered the tower. And it brought it all to pieces. And it terrified the entire world that so it. And the entire world saw it come down. But, something else even more terrifying happens right after this. People looked at each other, spoke, and they couldn't understand each other. The languages broke within each and every person. Not only couldn't they understand each other, they looked strange to each other. It was suddenly like they just didn't know each other. So, all of a sudden a riot breaks out. People can't understand each other, people are very confused. People are very lost at what's happening. Because when God brought the tower down, at the same time he confused the language of the people. Which is to confuse the very mind itself. And it basically reduce the brain power of the mind. So that it would cause people to basically panic at the sight of each other. The only culture that understood each other was people from the same city. Meaning people that were born within the household or within the culture of that people.

But they were no longer able to understand other people from other households or other cultures any longer. God literally broke them all up. This destroyed Nimrod's kingdom. This destroyed his dreams. This destroyed his apparitions. God literally rebuked a one world government. He rebuked the illuminati back then. And when he did, he scattered and divided the people. And the people were thus scattered. They were scattered through many ways. They were scattered through wars, scattered through diseases, scattered through famine. And by the time the dust settled the rulers were able to understand each other. Simply by the fact that before the languages were disconnected they had a system of hand signs. That they were able to use and communicate. But this did not mean they were unified at that time. It just means they knew they were related to each other. They knew in some degree they had to work with each other. But they were very, very more about running their own kingdoms.

Time Travel.mp4

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZsamsLQTiCU>

file:///srv/Youtube/channel/shieldoftheson/complete/0413/Time Travel.mp4

Length: 14:55

0:24 So to understand this, let us look into what happened at the fall of the Tower of Babel and the confusion of the languages.

0:52 And one of the things they were able to do was time travel.

1:39 ..Angels can move through the sphere of space and time. And one of the things that human kind was able to do was utilize this technology as well. But there are some things about do's and don't's and there are limitations to time travel.

2:15 The government at the turn of the twentieth century became far more advanced than you think. They just concealed so much of this technology.

2:50 The government found many, many ruins that were underneath the sea. And many of these ruins were basically buildings that housed certain technology from the past that was buried under. They would then find a pyramid which was actually a building structure. And within this pyramid building structure that was about a mile down underneath the sea near Montauk. They basically found what was know as a Stargate, which is what they called. But it was actually a portal device, to which much of it was still intact. They then retrieved this technology and they brought it in to their top scientist, one of them being Tesla. Tesla discovered that it was actually an instrument to open a space time portal. They then utilized Tesla's brilliance to figure out how it works. Tesla would then do so. He would then create other machines that were very similar to how they can be opened up. Einstein was also one of the people involved in this project.

05:06 A person can travel in time but they cannot change the past. The reason why is because by changing the past you are then trying to change something that is already set. A person can go back and observe time. They can go back and actually be there and observe it. But Tesla warned never to try to change the past. What will happen then is that when a person tries to do so is there's a disruption in the space time continuum, literally a disruption within the portal. This will then cause what is known as a retraction. Meaning whoever is responsibility for trying to do this will have their existence wiped out. They will open what is known as a dark hole, into which whatever they did would then suck through this filter, and then it would cause certain eruptions, environmental disasters in the future to whatever point in time they came from. So to understand, the Philadelphia Experiment is a great example.

06:18 To understand this, the Philadelphia Experiment involved the government basically to rediscover time travel technology, they knew it to be Atlantian old world technology. They knew that for a fact, and basically utilized this technology again.

06:42 Tesla warned them that they had to wear a certain band, that was basically electronic tracking device. That would be implemented upon them to separate matter from their physiology, so that they would be able to go back safely and not be able to disrupt anything in the past that would cause them danger or harm. The government ignored Tesla warnings about. First they ignored the warning that they had to wear the band, then they ignored the warning not to try to change anything in the past. When this ship disappeared it actually went back in time.

08:18 When this technology was developed the government did not heed the warnings of Tesla. Tesla feeling bad that so many people died and suffered, decided to quit the project and never try to work on the project again. Einstein, also, had the same convictions, and had a deep regret with even sharing any of their knowledge about it. When this happened, basically, the government continued to time travel and they continued it throughout this thirties and continued on to this time frame.

09:69 Many time traveling took place in Noah's time that often effected the old world to such an extent that lot of natural disasters occurred that was really ripping the Earth apart and had corrupted so many people, that God decided that the flood was the only way to stop it. So it wasn't just so much as genetic alterations but it was also the abuse of their technology. And the same thing would be happening today. So to understand they actually sent agents back in time to try to kill Christ, to try to kill certain key people, to try stop the Revelation of Christ and try to stop the Bible. But every single time they did this it failed, naturally it would, because, basically, they were challenging the God of the universe who created every single source of resources that human kind makes including themselves and controls the grid of it all. Just because a person can go back in to time doesn't mean they have control over time.

12:45 There's danger going into the future, because in the future they can be easily detected coming from our past.

13:08 And this is why they send actors because actors can blend in to a certain time frame and pretend to be one of them.

13:15 Also, when they try and go into the old world, since the old world was very advanced, many of them also never came back for the same reasons of trying to go back into the future. So, many of these things is quite, quite dangerous, actually, because the more and more they rip holes into the space time continuum and the more and more they travel back into time, this sends ripples into our time, and thus this causes earth pangs. Thus more earthquakes than we want.

Generation X-1z3HaUP2fZM.mp4

file:///srv/Youtube/channel/shieldoftheson/complete/0606/Generation X-1z3HaUP2fZM.mp4

Length: 18:15

00:45 One of the things about worshipping Satan, as these people do, is that Satan requires human sacrifices. That's one of the requirements that the people who worship Satan have to offer Satan, are the lives of human beings. Many people believe that the genocides that have taken place in the twentieth century, since the dawn of the twentieth century, had a lot to do with leaders who were Satanists and were offering sacrifices. Many of these sacrifices were offered in little amounts of human lives, and many of these sacrifices were offered in massive amounts of human lives, lives that are precious in the eyes of God. One of the sacrificial victims of such circumstance of a Satanic system has often believed to have fall upon generation X. Generation X is a generation born from 1975 and 1992. This is a generation that is often regarded as the lost generation, a generation who has been considered violence, ruthless and involved in many self destructive various lifestyles, ranging in all sorts of cultures all across the United States and around the world.

5:10 Did you know that Generation X out numbers baby boomers two to one?

5:15 Did you know that Generation X out numbers Generation Y twenty to one?

5:54 Did you know that in the last three wars that the United States fought in, meaning the Persian Gulf 1, Persian Gulf 2 and the war in Afghanistan, that has been spilled with the blood of Generation X; Generation X has fought, according to the media, in defense of the country called the United States of America, yet these soldiers and veterans are the most ignored soldiers and veterans in US history, the most unappreciated and the most murdered, not just over seas, but even murdered on the streets of the United States. They often come home to broken families and broken situations.

7:42 Did you know it was proven that the United States government started up the cocaine-crack trade to fund the CIA so they can fund South America rebels. This was a proven fact shown through the Washington Post. And what the Reagan administration and the Bush administration were doing during that time Generation X was growing up. They were funding their black ops military missions with crack-cocaine money, crack-cocaine that had to be sold somewhere among someone. Guess who they picked for that? Generation X.

10:08 The government very much instigated and entrapped an entire generation to sell crack-cocaine, and that's something they have to own up to, just as equally as the crack dealers have to own up to selling crack to their own people.

10:26 Did you know that in the years Generation X was being born and growing up, those years had the highest percentages of murder rates, suicides, poverty, poor education and other vices among not the baby boomers but upon Generation X.

10:44 Did you know that Generation X were targeted for government experimentation? Involving separation of parents from kids as the government sought to raise Generation X on various, so called, reform educational and help programs that were actually not real programs but were just daycare centers where you drop your kids off, and then strangers raise them. That's what they called help programs. In baby boom era daycare was not considered a help program. But in Generation X time it was. Why? Send the parents to work, so that the government can raise the kids on evolution, god-less values and liberal spirituality.

11:30 Did you know that Generation X was targeted for mass government mind control and brain washing methods, through the uses and abuses of media music entertainment, MTV namely, and other media outlets, Hollywood products, movies, actors, professional wrestling, sports, NBA, MLB, NFL, elections, media news programs, pornography, sitcoms and distribution of drugs. Did you know all of that was hit on a massive scale on Generation X far larger than it was ever seen in Baby Boom era. Did you know that what Generation Y sees now was just a culmination of what was thrown on upon us?

14:44 Generation X is ignored for a reason, by the way. We're the generation they wanted to kill. We were the experimental generation. We were the generation that they were going to abuse to perfect the technology that you see today. In order to perfect this technology on the millennium generation they had to practice on someone, they practice on us. When they practice on us, they went all out. The murder rates within our years can just speak for itself. It's sometimes double or three times more than the murder rates that you deal with now. We were completely raped of our entire culture, in more ways than one. They took us out like that because, quite frankly, they were afraid of us. They were afraid of the change that we can bring, or the reform that we can think of. They were afraid of the truth that we would discover, and the things that we would say about. They didn't want us to have an opinion because they couldn't handle that opinion. They didn't want us to become Christians because then we know the truth. They wanted to give us their Christianity, their spirituality, their form of control and their masonic brotherhoods. Which they hold over our head like a carrot over our nose.

16:32 Did you know that the homeless problem in America is eighty percent Generation X living on the streets? But most of their parents are still alive, isn't that something? Parents are alive, but their on the street, homeless and beginning for bread and food, their families don't even want them.

Three Men and a Baby – Scene with “ghost”/demon in window. Official Story: It was a card board cut out of Ted Danson. Upon comparison the image in the window is shorter and looks remarkably different. Why wasn’t it edited out in post production? Something else had occurred in it’s appearance, it is a demontic spirit.

1:00 One of the main bands that put alternative rock music on the rock and roll thrown was a band called Nirvana who was founded and formed by a demon possessed Satanist who was bi-sexual and a heroin addict with a massive ego and not that much empathy. And also he was a tortured soul named Kurt Cobain.

1:20 The band he formed, called Nirvana, ended up becoming in the main stream of the nineties the biggest money making and influential band of that decade. It was mainly because of them that Metallica had to change their sound to match a more alternative sound to continue in the main stream. And Nirvana opened the doors wide open, through their new market influence, for bands like Soundgarden, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Faith No More, Candlebox, Filter and so many others.

01:50 Bands like U2, REM, The Cure and many others started the market and they gained into the mainstream and they were successful. But Nirvana made it worldwide successful. And they turned it and brought as an anthem for an entire generation of young and lost, millions and millions of souls from all across the U.S. and around the world.

02:45 These young men and woman were into the doctrine of the satanic bible written by Anton Lavey. And, also, they read his book on witchcraft, and they read and believed in the religion and works of Helena P. Brovaski, Aleister Crowley, William Burgess, Kenneth Anger and others.

03:02 These alternative rock band members were generally witches and satanists who performed awful rituals and were subjected to Baphemot rituals, and MK Monarch mind control programming, for the CIA, working for the Illuminati, and most of them mind controlled before any of them became famous.

03:21 Kurt Cobain came from this backdrop of behind the scenes industry satanism. Growing up, he was often haunted by evil spirits, and he was often the victim of beatings from school bullies. And he dissociated from classmates, and even parents and teachers. He soon started making fiends with the Gothic click, who were really into satanism and they secretly practiced rituals. They taught Kurt to stand up for himself and to rebel against his parents and teachers. He then started to use drugs heavily, like cannabis, cocaine, opium and heroin and acid.

3:56 He soon developed a wild and abusive personality, and through the demonic rituals he practiced with his coven, he became demonically possessed, and a member of the Church of Satan coven in Seattle, and began spending his nights in the underground scene of Seattle clubs playing grunge music. And in that time he would be inspired to learn and play the music, and he had a natural gift to perform but he did not know how to play guitar. He was able to sing somewhat.

4:25 And so, like Robert Johnson, decades before him, Kurt asked Satan for the power to play this music. And Satan actually answered him and appeared to him. And Kurt would sell his soul to become musically gifted.

4:38 One night Kurt showed up at the club and he borrowed someone's guitar to play on stage. That night he surprised the other musicians he played with, and the people he played to. He played like someone who had been trained and playing his whole life. Only his main coven members knew how he got that good.

4:55 Soon, Kurt was having major problems in high school and at home. And when his parent's found out that Kurt was a member of a demonic coven they kicked him out on the street. Kurt would then stay at times, at his friends place that he met though the grunge nightclub scene. And he, many times, slept out on the streets. And also, he stayed at the homes of gay boyfriends or girlfriends.

5:20 Through his nightclub connections he met two men, one was a drummer and the other was a guitarist name Chris Noviak, and met another guitarist. And soon, those four men became the group called Nirvana. For, Nirvana actually started out with four people. And they started by hanging out together and playing together, and they got high together.

05:41 Soon they formed a band and they quickly got low-paying gigs at certain night club functions and garage parties, and even on underground club tours. During that time, on the Seattle scene, while playing in his band Cobain often sold his body to homosexual men for drug money.

06:02 When Kurt and his band went on to the underground club tour, that tour was sponsored by Hollywood music Baphomet members, who were always on the lookout of new Satanic talent.

06:12 When Nirvana played it was like osmosis. They were possessed and played in sync often in eerily playing notes that were demonically coming out of them that greatly energized their audiences and themselves everywhere they went.

6:26 The tour managers were highly impressed with them and they offered them a deal to join the Baphomet and to sign on with a record label that would try them out.

6:34 Soon, Nirvana, submitted to the horrible Baphomet rituals of sexual and physical abuse and they were mind controlled by these Hollywood agents, as well, who had major plans for them.

6:57 Nirvana would go on a notorious tour in Europe to promote the album where everywhere they went the reeked havoc in the clubs and on the streets with vandalism, arson, fist-fights, and drunkenness and De-generate and openly gay behavior. Many times they started riots and Corbain got into fights with security guards, audience members and many times he would threaten to kill himself on stage.

7:21 The band was often immersed in satanic worship. They were high on Heroin and Cocaine. They were possessed by spirits that got them to act nuts. And they were performing horrible blood rituals.

7:32 Soon through automatic writing, Satan gave Cobain a song that wold make him and his band, and alternative music in general, a world-wide phenomenon and success. And that song that Cobain was given lyrics and music was a song called "Smells Like Teen Spirit."

7:48 Cobain then taught the song to his band-mates and he had a falling out with one of the members. And soon he quit, reducing the band to only three members. And those three would soon perform "Smells Like Teen Spirit" to a club, grunge audience, who were blown away by the song. And it quickly became that musical movements anthem.

8:08 Soon Cobain received many more songs and hooks from automatic writing and they recorded their second album, Nevermind, based on those songs, while they released the song "Smells Like Teen Spirit" on the radio. And it was the most requested rock song all across the fifty states and the world. And it quickly entered the top ten. And that song as then followed up by its world wide premier MTV music video for the song. And that video debuted in the U.S. and worldwide. That song blew common heavy metal songs away in the eyes of many rock fans. And when Nirvana's Nevermind was released that album sank the heavy metal genre, and it's music of alternative grunge took over the rock market in a huge way. "Smells Like Teen Spirit," the single, sold millions of copies and their album also went multi-platinum, selling several million copies world-wide. And the song, "Smells Like Teen Spirit" became the national grunge anthem.

Length: 9:10

1:20 Kurt Cobain became the prince of grunge music. And he became an unwilling mouthpiece for a generation of lost youths. And in the time of the early to mid nineties, he led them to the alternative lifestyle of sodomy, drugs, satanic worship and death. One does not have to look that deeply to see that the life of Kurt Cobain and alternative band members was not inspired by God. And one can see that the spirit that inspired Cobain and the grunge bands and their millions and millions of fans was not the spirit of God but the spirit of Satan. Examining the life of Cobain and grunge artists is like lifting the lid off of a cesspool. And I mean that literally. Amidst all of the glamour and fame of Cobain, from a guy who usually had about five to fifteen bucks in his pocket, he was now a multi-millionaire. But yet, he was filled with despair. And often he had a hopeless mindset about things. And he was always miserable. And he needed to be always high. And he could not function without heroin. And he was immersed in sorcery. His club transition days from rags to fame, he met a woman who was just as bad as him, but far more cold blooded. And that person he met was an artist and a grunge band called Hole, by the name of Courtney Love, a woman he helped get into the industry. And the Illuminati industry managers put Love and Cobain into an arranged marriage for press reasons. And the two at first did not mind. But they at first got along and did a lot of spiritual damage on their fans and peers. But soon due to jealousy, greed, envy, pride and other issues Cobain and Love turned on each other. That resulted in Cobain wanting to leave the industry and Love seeking to have him murdered. Cobain's desire for Satanism started from a deep seated scar of rejection that he received from his childhood. He was not loved by his parents. His parents were too busy being at odds with each other. And also, they did not know well how to love a child when they don't love themselves or each other. Thus Cobain was neglected and soon being bullied, caused that scar of rejection to open further. And what resulted was an insatiable need to be accepted. And it was a Satanic coven that accepted him. That at first made Cobain a very devout and strong servant of Satan, selling his soul for fame, something, at the time, he had no problem with.

3:41 In fact, Cobain was so bold, about his Satanic allegiance and belief that he one time made it publicly known to the press and his fans when he openly stated to 'em, that his only aim in life was to get stoned and worship Satan, in those exact words. Cobain hated Christianity and Jesus Christ. And he was cold blooded towards Christian beliefs. Cobain openly had a statue of Mary, the mother of Jesus, with its head cut off. Also, during Nirvana's tours from city to city, Kurt and his bass guitarist and sometime gay lover named Chris, who he used to French Kiss on stage, would go to local churches of the cities they visited, and they boldly used to desecrate church buildings. They used to take a can of spray paint and spray pro-homosexual remarks on the front door of their buildings, or on the side of the wall. And sometimes, when they were able they used to spray paint these remarks inside the building for everyone to see. Some of the remarks they spray painted was, "God is gay" "Homosexual sex rules" and abort Christ and several others.

4:49 Sometimes Kurt and Chris, even a few other friends, would go with Kurt during times when certain Bible churches would have Bible class meetings. And they would wait until everyone was settled inside. Once they were, Kurt would quickly dart from the car, and run upon to the front door or the porch of the church holding pieces of paper that had song lyrics on them that he was not happy with. And so, he then put the papers on the floor of the front door, and poured lighter fluid on the papers and lit them on fire. Sometimes the fire would even spread to the front door. Often the smoke of the fire would then be traveling under the front door, filling the room with smoke. And by the time they came out to see the papers flickering in the air, Kurt was well on his way out of the area.

05:33 One time in the city of Abereen, when the band was playing there, Cobain walked into a church located in that city at East Second Street. Cobain then walked up to a very expensive crucifix, that the church had and he took it and smashed it in two. And then he destroyed the churches wooden notice board by kicking it down and then smashing it. And then he took the communion trays and candles and other artifacts and began to violently smash them on the ground and break them into pieces. The church officials there then called the police, where Cobain was arrested for vandalism, and he was told by the police to stay out of there city.

6:09 Corbain often decorated the apartment he lived in, and the mansion house he lived in with baby dolls hanging by their necks with blood that was all over them by Corbain, who used to cut himself and sprinkle or smear his blood on these dolls. His most noted doll was a doll that he received from a witchcraft ritual. These dolls are known as Satanic dolls and Cobain hung his Satanic doll from a noose in his front window.

6:33 Corbain was often seen as a hero or mentor figure to the lost and abused, but in fact, Corbain never cared about them. And it is very much known that he hated his fans. And he had a wicked heart with an arrogant and vain attitude. And he looked at his fans and interviewers with total hatred and silent animosity.

6:52 His music was not his music, but Satan's music. And his songs from his albums influenced millions and millions of people into violent, gay, and rebellious and reckless, and hateful lifestyles. His music was filled with the energy of Satanic beings. They used him like a pawn in a much bigger game. A game that Corbain came to start fully learning about. And what he learned started to change him, toward the end, with the need to take his daughter and leave the industry.

7:19 At the height of his career , and when more albums started to come out, Kurt received his songs and hooks for these songs through more automatic writing. And he was deeply immersed in black magic and witchcraft.

7:30 And he married Courtney Love, a woman who was a Satanic drama queen, who loves to draw attention to her reckless self.

7:37 Kurt and Love would delve deep into Satanic worship, learning to cast distasteful spells, and communicating with evil spirits in a possessed trance state.

07:47 Soon Kurt Corbain would meet Satanist William Burgueus, a man who was compared to Aleister Crowley in terms of devoutness and in terms of the Satanic actions that Burgueus committed for Satan, and also for his Satanic philosophy, as well, which was very much like Crowley's. Burgess is Satanic Magist priest of the OTO, Luciferian society. And he was an artist who became a respected and legendary Satanist. Kurt Corbain wanted to learn from him his magic skills and teachings. And so Corbain built up a friendship with him. And he spend many nights learning about Satanic ritual worship and philosophy with William Burgess. Burgess was also the Satanic guru of Jimmy Page, Hollywood director David Cornberg and many other Hollywood A-list people. IN fact, it was well know that William Burgess was the one who first came up with the name Heavy Metal to describe the new hard-rock sound of Led Zeppelin and Black Sabbath. It was a Satanic Pedophilic Magist Priest that gave us the word heavy metal. Cobain developed a deep friendship with this sick and disturbed man, that he had Burgess play certain musical instruments on some of his tracks on his third album. And Burgess helped to put together the songs on the album called In Utero.

8:00 In fact, Kurt was so inspired by him that he gave this, child raper, special things on the credits of the album in Utero, a man who also became demon possessed after he killed his wife, as a ritual for Satan. In fact, to get an understanding of how sick and twisted Kurt was, Kurt stated that one of the greatest moments of his life was meeting William Burgess. The mindset behind that is very sick indeed. Another person Kurt met and was heavily influenced by was Anton Lavey, the man who headed the California church of Satan, and founded other coven's for the Illuminati. Kurt had such a deep friendship with Anton Lavay that he asked him if he would play his cello on a song that he was doing for Nevermind. In fact, Kurt's relationship with Lavay goes back to when Kurt did his very first album with Nirvana. Anton Lavay had always been one of the men that guided Kurt Cobain's career. And it was the media who made Kurt a generational idol for the lost youths. Cobain's deep demonic possession was explanation as to the source of his musical inspiration, and his uncanny ability he had for coming up with alluring and seductive hooks. People often tend to forget that Satan is also a musical being.

1:26 Satan so possessed Cobain that often Cobain stumbled onto melodies that he himself didn't fully understand. These were the songs that frantically incited Nirvana's fans.

1:38 Kurt Corbain as an artist was not a musician singer per se. He was a sorcerer. He was a willing and twisted medium for Satanic forces. He conjured evil spirits and used their musical abilities to play through him.

1:53 To truly learn from Corbain, is to learn to be a high level black magic sorcerer.

2:15 And he wore dark sunglasses often in interviews so that a person would not see his eyes, which should the effects of how high he was.

2:23 His heroin addiction and demon possession led to Corbain having intense stomach pains and strange un-diagnose-able stomach ailments.

2:46 Often when he sang demonic voices would come out of him similar to Jim Morrison's case. His voice would demonically change on stage.

2:54 Often Cobain carried around on him pictures of women in pornographic poses with animals and often he would throw the pictures at the audience during his concerts.

3:04 Sometimes he even spit on his fans and urinated on them and he has started riots and fights with security at his concerts.

3:11 Kurt Corbain also had a massive ego for a Hollywood musical star which is saying a lot when you consider the competition. Kurt's vanity was such that other Hollywood musical peers hated him and they did not like being around him.

3:27 Corbain was known to be sadistically insulting and his possessed state was not something he could always control. And he would do sick and disturbing things among Hollywood peers and his fans.

3:36 Corbain also had a violent and murderous temper, he has killed infants in occult rituals, and he has gotten other people killed through various ways, that were people he personally did not like.

3:47 One time a journalist named Lynn Hisenberg busted Courtney Love for snorting cocaine while pregnant with Corbain's child. The story was released in Vanity Fair. And soon Corbain was trying to find ways through his occult connections to have her killed. And he will tell his friends about all the fantasies he has of killing this journalist. He even wanted to kill her dog. And take the dog's guts, and wipe the animal's guts all over her.

4:12 When Corbain could not get her killed, he then decided to use his sorcery and try and to put a hex on this women.

4:25 Often he had vicious fights with Courtney Love. Sometimes they would even fist fight each other. And one night Corbain had to be persuaded by a friend not to kill Courtney. For Corbain wanted to shoot her one night.

4:37 The drama between the two of them was often intense. And they often cheated on each other in gay relationships, or other kinds of relationships.

4:46 In fact, Kurt Corbain had such a deep seated a deep seated hatred for humanity that he publicly stated, that if was up to him, he would kill about ninety-nine percent of the people and only leave a few close people alive.

4:59 Kurt Corbain lead millions and millions of people on a path of self destruction.

5:04 He often communicated through his music and person to his fans his utter pervisity, and a feeling of hopelessness.

5:11 At his concerts people died due to tramplings, beatings, suffocations, stabbings, drug over-doses or some strange occurrences.

5:19 His fans have even killed themselves for the love of Kurt Corbain, and their lifestyles are damaging and reckless leading to them to mental diseases and AIDs.

5:29 Kurt Corbain rejected biblical moral absolutes, and rejected the authority of God over his life and established Satan as his ultimate authority.

5:37 The band Nirvana used their music as a way of subversion toward Christian values. And to sleep teach the people to one day destroy their lives through harmful actions.

5:48 The music of alternative grunge bands is centered on exoticism, punk attitudes, huge displays of apathy, the cult of feminism, using attitudes and tastes of a Satanic kind to mold peoples minds.

6:22 Corbain had a huge lack of sensitivity when it came to woman. He utterly and usually hated woman. And often he mistreated his female groupies by beating them and sadistically toying with them by making them to act like domestic animals. And he would urinate on them and sodomize them and treat them like rag dolls. Many times he would drag them around the room by their hair.

6:46 There were even times during his career that he raped some of his groupies for fun.

6:51 One time, a woman fan described how she was willing to give herself to Kurt until he started to get rough with her and he started to make growling sounds. And when he did he rammed his hand between the woman's legs painfully hard. And she told him to stop. But he started to laugh at her, in her distress. And he then turned her around, and slammed her against the wall, and was about to rape her by sodomizing her. But another couple from the party entered the same room, where Kurt got distracted and the woman ran out of the room, and was unintentionally saved from being raped by Kurt Corbain, the so-called hero.

7:36 Many of those who knew Corbain stated, that there was something evil about him that would manifest physically. He had a demonic split personality and he would turn into a viscous Hitler-like person out of nowhere, at times. And living with him, or playing with him was like living or playing with the devil himself. He was very tormented by his demonic possession.

7:57 The demons many times would get Kurt to cut himself or sabotage his concerts.

8:02 One time he tried to commit suicide by jumping off a massive speaker column during one of his shows.

8:08 Sometimes, when these demons get the better of him, he changes into an animal personality, where he is found barking like a dog and growling. One time, on stage, when this happened to him, for about twenty-five minutes the show was stopped because Corbain was clambered through the rafters, and he was clawing like an animal at the curtains. And then he almost killed himself when he thought he was an ape and he started to swing from the building chandeliers.

8:43 Often during his demonic attacks, when Corbain started to come down from it, he would be found crying, and shedding painful tears of the misery of this state. He knew he was evil, and he did not know how to escape it or get free from it. He was a constant threat to himself and others, and he had an aggressive personality. And he struggled with real living demons inside of him that drove him, and they tormented him.

0:49 The band name called Nirvana is the Hindu religion name for their version of heaven. In truth, it is a counterfeit heaven, designed to blind people, and to bind people to the millions of Hindu demon gods which are worshiped by Satanists every day. The so-called bliss of Nirvana turned out to be an insane filthy one-room prison. And Cobain, whose alter ego, the demons that possessed him, called Buddha, were constantly turning on him.

2:02 Days before Cobain was put in rehab he was filing for divorce from Love and seeking sole custody of his daughter. And he was buying guns. And he kept telling people that he was not safe, and that his managers were trying to kill him. He told them about the strange break-ins in his home, and the strange phone calls of death threats. When the Illuminati is about to kill someone, they like to make their victims afraid, to build up the fear energy as field to many the killing more potent, as they see this.

2:31 Soon Cobain managed to escape the rehab center, and he got to his luxury home, where the baby sitter of Cobain's daughter, named Michael Dewitt, was house sitting Kurt's home. And when Kurt came back there Michael found out that Kurt was going to eventually flee. And so he managed to make a call to Love, who was with the hit squad, that Kurt was at home.

2:52 And so a plan was hatched out to murder Kurt. And when Kurt came to his home that night, he wrote a farewell letter to the demon within him, and the industry in general. And he planned on quitting.

3:05 On April 1st, 1994, Kurt escaped the rehab center, Maria Del Ray California. And without telling no-one but Michael Dewitt, he went to his home in secret, and began to write a farewell letter, while Dewitt was on the phone with Courtney, informing her that Cobain was at his home.

3:23 When Corbain was at his home he had a private room over his garage area where he got high in. When he came home he locked himself in this room and began to write the note. And he also was shooting up some heroin. In that room Cobain kept a shotgun rifle.

3:38 While he was high Cobain could hear the door handle moving like someone was trying to get in. And when he started to move to get his shot gun, they managed to get the door open. And they walked in, who were Courtney Love and several Mafia hit-men working for the industry. These men subdued Corbain and to sedate him, they injected him with 225 milligrams of heroin. Which was three times the legal dose, even for a hard core addict.

4:04 While Cobain was sedated, in fact, if they didn't shoot him, he would have died from the overdose. But while he was in that state, Love and one of the men with her read Corbain's note and decided to turn it into a suicide note. Courtney then picked up the small pen, that Corbain used to write the note. And she added the last lines in the note, by trying to copy Corbain's handwriting. And those lines she added were the only lines indicating a suicide. The rest of the note had nothing to do with suicide. But it was a farewell note to the industry.

4:34 After they wrote the note they then began to sweep the area to wipe of the prints. And originally they were going to leave Corbain to die of an overdose. But when they got worried that he might live through it, and so Courtney grabbed a shotgun she knew was in the room. And they picked up Corbain's body to position his head and lower body. And then Courtney put the shotgun in his mouth. And she pulled the trigger, and killed him. She even laughed at the sight of it.

5:01 They then wiped the fingerprints from the shotgun. And they informed the police about a few days after Corbain's body had been lying there to pick it up. And tell the world it's a suicide, when evidence on the scene shows it was not a suicide, but a clear act of murder.

5:16 The media events of the story of Kurt Corbain's death is filled with lies, contradictions in logic and countless inconsistencies. When Kurt Corbain was found dead he was in the process of leaving the industry and his wife Courtney Love.

5:31 One of Kurt Cobain's credit cards was missing from his wallet. And it was discovered that someone attempted to use it, while Kurt's body was lying dead on the floor. It was Michael Dewitt that stole the credit card and attempted to use it. And he stole the card from Kurt's lifeless body.

5:47 When the shotgun was found it was loaded with three shells. And the most shocking thing is, there was no fingerprints at all found on the shotgun nor its trigger.

5:57 Also the pen that was used to write the so-called suicide note, also did not have any fingerprints on the pen.

6:17 And so the question is, why don't they realize that and call his death a murder. And the reason for that is that the police were used to cover up his murder.

6:42 There was only a short foot note to Courtney and his daughter Francis. And the hand writing contained in those lines, has been shown by hand writing experts, not to match the writing of the rest of the note. Because those lines were written by Courtney herself.

7:31 Because of the media's false story of suicide, they helped to greatly cover up the truth of what really happened to him. And they also inspired people to actually kill themselves.

7:42 On the night of the vigil of Kurt Cobain's death a fan named Daniel Casper was returning home from it, so full of sorrow. That when he went home, he got a hold of a gun. And he put a bullet in his head, which killed him.

7:55 Another fan who was sixteen years old, one day locked herself in a room, began listening to Nirvana's music in honor of Kurt. And then she grabbed a gun she got a hold of, and brought it into the room. And she proceeded to shoot herself with it.

8:08 In fact, there was a time when the suicide rate among youths hardly existed. But in the eighties it was on the rise majorly. And then in the nineties and especially after the media story of Cobain's death, the suicide rate among youths tripled.

8:36 During Kurt Cobain's time in music Hollywood, he came to learn about a demonic plan called 911, that could bring about a great deception on the U.S. and the world.

8:46 If Kurt ever showed that he had it somewhere, buried beneath his heart that he cared, even a little bit, for his fans, then a sign of it was definitely seen on the cover of In Utero. The title of that album was a play on words. And knowing that now look at the shirt Kurt was wearing on that album cover. In Utero means reverse. And So Kurt wanted you to one day in a subliminal way, to reverse the image of the cover as you look at it. And you will notice something shocking when the image was in reverse.

9:14 The shirt Kurt was wearing reveals an image of two towers and a plane coming to hit it. Kurt in his own way was trying to warn people of the deceitful threat of the attack called 911 in 1994, way before it ever happened. Showing you, just how much these Hollywood stars know and why they are killed when they no longer want to be part of it

00:05 Not too long ago there was a brilliant Illuminati scientist named Nikolai Tesla. He was called the scientific superman. And he played a subversive part in helping to change the world. Nikolai was renowned in the world of the occult. He was deeply possessed having a lot of demonic abilities. And he was trained on other planets, particularly Mars, in advanced super technology through the secret society connections that he knew. In to which he was a man very in touch with fallen angels and high level degrees of those involved of the most powerful secrets in the world.

00:42 Nikolai worked on magnetic gravity technology and made technology to co-mingle with sorcery. His previous works helped to build later the blue beam project, projects of wireless technology and HAARP weapons, two technologies that use the energy of demons to plant brain washing thoughts into the heads of the people, project blue beam; or cause natural disasters, the HAARP weapon. He worked on technology that opened portals to see into time, the space and time continuum windows, which actually would have a disasters result to bring in demons into our realm. And he worked on advanced mind control and technicians to induce super natural strength and mind deception on someone. He was a devout Satanic person, who also when he arrived in America he worked on many secret, hush, hush, projects one of them was the Philadelphia Experiment, so that the American government could also have time portal window technology.

01:45 He also helped to develop American Viminy technology as well Russian. Along with showing how free energy can be accomplished along with making weapons that fired electric death rays, also know today as a cosmosphere, laser infra-red blast. And he was able to point out how to make the magnetic storms, a weapon the sons of God used, in the old world to defeat demons.

02:07 Nikolai also, before this work with the Germans, and during his mind control involvement, he became good friends with the writer, who come to create a character named superman. The writer was George Seagal, an illuminati writer and occultist, who worked for DC comics. And the character of superman, his image, came from a testimony given by Nikolai, of a fallen being he encountered while opening a demonic portal, in which the being was fallen angel wearing a blue and red spandex type suite with a triangle pointing down with a coiled serpent in the middle of the triangle, hence the word "S." And these being who were in fact the fallen angels were called the supermen. And they would often speak to world leaders, and conspiracy players like Hitler, Nikolai, Crowley and others. Many of them wore different our similar uniforms, pretending to be aliens, but they were not.

02:58 Nikolai also wrote a book, journal about his trip to Mars, a planet he spent a lot of time on as he lived in a Japanese Martian colony and helped to build a Germany Mars colony during the days of Hitler.

03:10 Nikolai was also a good friend to Orsen Wells. And he shared a lot of his experiences with Wells, who revered him almost like a God. Nikolai's fame, or public attention, thanks due to Orsen Wells helping him to become more public. The Illuminati caused Nikolai to suddenly disappear from public view and then some years later he was pronounced dead.

03:30 Nikolai was killed because he became to exposed. In fact one time, one time during the Superman cartoon series, an episode featured Superman versus Nikolai Tesla. That's how exposed he was becoming. This episode was a subversive Illuminati episode to honor the fact that his testimony created the character. Also Nikolai knew ways to hurt and attack fallen angels and demons. That was a major reason why the fallen angels wanted him killed. But the Illuminati liking the fact that they had an edge on their masters, kept him alive instead, until they finally caved into their wishes and killed him.

04:22 Tesla's main rival was a man named Thomas Edison, and those who supported him in the Illuminati. Edison wanted to be the sole owner of electricity and wanted Tesla's fame to disappear. As you know neither man created electricity, in fact, in oral tradition it's founder was Adam, the first man ever created by God. In the late nineteenth century both Edison and Tesla leaned about electricity through the Illuminati occults they were a part of. The truth behind their find was this, Edison was an evil man and he was deeply jealous and hateful of Tesla, because Tesla was smarter than him. He knew how to generate more power from electrical currents, and he made far more advanced machines than Edison ever could. Also, Tesla wanted energy to be free for all human kind, but Edison wanted to put a meter on it and charge people for it and so did the Illuminati. To provide free energy was like giving away free gold to the Illuminati so they did not want to see that happen. Tesla was also not afraid to tell people spiritual truths. Tesla would tell others about the light that flashed from electrical thunderbolts, or from atmospheric made electric thunder bolts. You see, Tesla knew that there was no scientific explanation for the sight of the light, it was a known supernatural mystery to science. Tesla sought many times through his powerful electrical machines to figure out how that light appears there, and he could never figure it out. One time God, did give him the answer, but it was an answer that the world wasn't willing to hear. God revealed to him that his holy Angels are the one's who flash that light by his power and command. The source was inter-dimensional, supernatural activity. And so Tesla learning this, was know aware of the living God. And he will tell people about how he came to learn how the light flashes. But as always they ignored the truth, and started to slander Tesla, as they were Satanist and they were threatened by the truth.

06:14 One day J.P. Morgan, a very evil man, and devout Illuminati servant, came to Tesla and asked him to build the worlds most powerful energy reactor.

06:42 Tesla was at about that time was being called a mad scientist, and he was being greatly demonically attacked by fallen angels, as they would haunt him and leave him in cold sweats. And they caused a mental condition upon him, in the same manner that they did to Howard Hughes. Tesla would avoid touching people and would isolate himself. At the time, anyone in the high professional fields of science, if they were to work or even talk to Tesla, they were blacklisted and ostracized. Tesla when he met Morgan, it was a secret meeting, that Morgan did not want anyone to know about. Morgan told him about building the reactor, for he sought to put Edison out and Morgan on top of the electric game.

07:46 Tesla was told that Morgan would secretly provide funds using a middle man. And Tesla was to publicly appear as if he were solely behind this project. Also, Morgan did not want Edison to find out either. When Tesla got the money, he planned on building the reactor, but not in accordance to Morgan's wishes. But he planned on doing something that had not been done since the old world. He was going to build a reactor at the Northern point of the world, that could regenerate enough power to light the whole world. His reactor would have provided free energy to every nation on the Earth. Tesla did not tell Morgan this at first, because he knew already what they would say to him. So he wanted to do it under his nose, just to show what he can do, and how the invention would make Morgan even more famous and now loved man. Which would have happened if the Illuminati did not stop it. When Tesla went North with his hired workers and fellow scientists, his personal students with the funds and began to build a reactor, the justice department started to spy on him. And they got several of there men hired as employees. Soon those rat employees learned what Tesla was really doing. And they immediately went to their bosses, and the head of the department went to Morgan, for they now knew his silent partner was, and told him that he was to discontinue funds and shut down the project and to sabotage Tesla. If Morgan refused, they threatened to kill him. Morgan was furious, they found out, and he blamed Tesla and got a hold of him by phone and fired him, and canceled the project. And it was midway almost completed, and cut off all funds and warned Tesla, that if he ever went public with this project or his involvement with Morgan, that he will have him killed. Tesla knew why Morgan changed on him, and he wrote him several letters to fight the powers that be and finish this project, for it would make him so world famous that there threats would be meaningless. But Morgan was a sellout, and would play ball, and not listen to common sense. When Morgan refused to send funds Tesla's project was abandoned and turned down. After that, Tesla, would at times, be called in to work on classified top secret projects. But his fame, and public wealth was all stripped of him. He was completely blacklisted and ostracized and over time the FBI would have agents under Hoover spying on him and sabotaging his efforts to build back his wealth and prestige. Their actions done at the behest of the Illuminati, caused Tesla to be homeless and penniless. And he managed to live a trans-hotel lifestyle that was all he was able to do, as he was also on welfare. The system got him later in life to the trans-hotel, in New York City, called the New Yorker, where the poor and below level near homeless live. Tesla lived on the thirty-third floor, a floor reserved for fallen, broken and destroyed mason members, as they were also spied on.

10:39 In fact, Tesla would show his findings on paper to some of his neighbors, who some of them unknowing to Tesla were mason spies for the FBI and CIA. They pretended to be the lonely man's friend as they rated him out pertaining to what he was doing. The Illuminati then wanted the papers compensated and so they sent the FBI into his room where they poisoned Nikolai and took his writings to be used on classified projects and had Nikolai assassinated in his old age. The maid's the next day found his body. Nikolai's legacy was the future.

11:17 Nikolai was considered to be smarter than Edison, Graham, Newton, Einstein, Crowley, Parsons and all the top scientists then and now, regarding the people behind secret space travel and the Earth's industrial age.

11:46 Did Tesla die a martyr, even though he was a devout New Ager? It is possible though he would have a lot to be sorry for, considering he helped a man like Hitler and the Nazi party and he helped all the black ops secret governments into which he helped the American government to engage in advanced technology under black ops means that came at a human cost. The idea to provide free energy and be persecuted for that, and to sent to live in exile away from them is a sign of a brave and convicted choice on his part. But was it for God or his own fame? It was at the time where into which, this is a decision that we leave into the hands of God. Nikolai Tesla gave his life, at the end, for something that was far better than the selfishness of this world
